

Selsey Golf Club Code of Conduct

The Code of Conduct is applicable to all Members of the Golf and Country Club, Guests, and Visitors.

Selsey Golf Club is committed to providing an environment that is free of discrimination, harassment, and intimidation for members, employees, and guests.

The Code of Conduct must be adhered to at all times whilst on the premises. Any behaviour that is deemed to be breaching the Code of Conduct will not be tolerated, and disciplinary procedures will be considered in all cases.

Whilst fully acknowledging that adult “banter” contributes to creating a healthy atmosphere among members, these rules are designed to safeguard others who find such banter offensive or intimidating. This Code of Conduct is not intended to create a bureaucratic regulatory environment, but rather to promote and enhance our Club’s values.

In the Club House

Members, Guests, and Visitors are reminded that:

- Any form of discrimination, harassment or intimidation is regarded as unacceptable behaviour.
- Consumption of excessive quantities of alcohol is not permitted by law. Please do not be offended if service is refused.
- The use of foul or abusive language such as swearing has no place in the club house and any member heard using unacceptable or offensive language will be asked to either stop or leave the premises.
 - Where someone is noticed to be consistently using bad language after being warned then their continued membership will be reviewed accordingly.
- Smoking or the use of e-cigarettes is not permitted within any of the club buildings.
- The taking of illegal substances is prohibited and will incur immediate suspension and loss of membership.
- The use of mobile phones in the club house is not encouraged, however if it is necessary to use your mobile phone then we ask that you be considerate to others in the club at the time of use.
